

Hot off the press

We have 12 prison based workshops across England and Wales dedicated to printing and signage, with 13 smaller workshops supporting data entry and desktop publishing solutions to satisfy your business needs.

State of the art litho and digital presses allow expertly trained prisoners to work on all your printing and marketing requirements at the speed your business needs. And before you hit print, we have desktop publishing, data entry and direct marketing fulfilment that makes us a one stop shop for professional communications.

We already print:

- Leaflets up to 5 colour
- Posters up to A1, including laminating
- Signage on di-bond, plastic or aluminium
- Brochures up to size A4 with PUR binding and laminating
- Multipart carbonless sets
- File covers
- Business stationery for Timpson

Talk to us about what we can do for your business

Our extensive experience in printing, signage and digital media means that we can adapt our facilities to meet your requirements. Two of our workshops are accredited to ISO 9001:2008 with more sites to follow.

We are accredited to FSC and PEFC.

What our team say

“We have very successful real work areas inside the print and finish workshop. Prisoners are very eager to work and learn skills that will help them after release.” William Styles, Governor, HMP Norwich.

“In the printing department we offer a high standard of training in all aspects of industrial printing, up to and including City & Guilds qualifications.” Tommy Wilson, Instructional Officer, HMP Wymott.
